

2013 FALL TCI CONFERENCE IN LEWISTON, MAINE

The World Language
Department at Poland Regional High School is PLEASED to ANNOUNCE that Laurie Clarcq is coming to Lewiston, Maine on October 10 & 11, 2013!

Laurie Clarcq is a classroom Spanish teacher with 30 years experience. She has also presented on a local, state and national level. Her presentations and workshops address topics including curriculum, planning, grading, motivation, participation, and interactive activities in Reading, Writing, Listening, Speaking and integrating Culture. In 2008, she and Michele Whaley began to implement an approach to reading that we have titled Embedded Reading. Embedded reading is a series of scaffolded versions of one text, designed to help readers acquire language, learn content and improve literacy skills.

For the last 14 years she has also been a presenter, trainer and coach for teachers using TPRS (Teaching Proficiency through Reading and Storytelling).

Laurie presently teaches Spanish at Marcus Whitman High School in Rushville, New York.
